In November 1906 the old Khándesh District was divided into two. Chopda and Amalner Tálukas and the country to the east of them became the new district of East Khándesh with head-quarters at Jalgaon, while the remainder of the old district formed the new West Khándesh District with head-quarters at Dhulia, and retained the head-quarter station of the old Khándesh District. The West Khándesh District comprises seven tálukas and one petha, and the East Khándesh ten tálukas and three pethas. The area of the East Khándesh District is 4,551 square miles and that of West Khándesh 5,439 square miles.

The area of cultivated land by tálukas as shown in the Revenue Accounts in 1910-11 in the East and West Khándesh Districts is as under :—

Famine.—Famine occurred in 1896-97, mainly owing to a failure of crops as the result of the want of seasonable rain. Of the total area of 10,700 square miles, 1,700 square miles were seriously affected. Relief works were opened and continued for fourteen months. The maximum number of persons receiving relief reached 36,560 in April. In 1899-1900 the rains failed, and the entire district was affected with severe famine. Relief works were opened, the daily average number being 2,348, and continued till September 1902. The maximum number relieved was (in March) 270,523, 63,817 persons receiving gratuitous relief. Special relief was also given to weavers in their own craft during the famine. The death-rate in the district was 85·48 per mille. The total number of deaths from all causes on relief works was 12,755, of which 5,177 were due to dysentery and diarrhœa and 1,331 to cholera. The percentage proportion of sexes and children among the relief workers in the district was 31 men, 43 females and 26 children. The average wage per worker unit was Re. 0-1-3. In 1900-1901 an area of 3,578 square miles and a population of 312,000 or 22 per cent of the total population was again affected. The maximum number in receipt of relief on this occasion was 42,633 in July, 41,201 persons receiving gratuitous relief. The death-rate during the year was 38·13 per mille. The relief works, which were closed in September 1901, were re-opened in January 1902, the area affected in this year being the same as in 1900-1901. The highest total daily average attendance on relief works in 1902 was 14,194 in August. The number in receipt of gratuitous relief was 13,443. The death-rate was 33·94 per mille. Since 1902 the districts have remained unaffected by famine.

Plague.—The first case of plague occurred in Jalgaon in November 1897, and soon after some villages in the Jalgaon Táluka became infected. The infection then spread to four or five villages in the Jámner Táluka, and to villages in each of the tálukas of Chálisgaon, Amalner and Dhulia. The district suffered very severely in 1902 and 1903. The total mortality up to the end of 1910-11 in both the districts amounted to over 79,000.

MEHWAS ESTATES.

MEHWÁS ESTATES.

Area and population.– None of the six Mehwás Estates pay tribute to the British Government except Kathi (Rs. 133). The Estates have an area of about 1,463 square miles, containing 217 villages with 4,471 houses and a population of 23,624 souls distributed as follows:—

Estate.	Area in square miles.	Population.
1 Chikhali	200	7,622
2 Káthi	1,000	11,795
3 Raisingpur	200	2,508
4 Singpur	20	799
5 Nal	23	578
6 Nawalpur	20	322
Total ...	1,463	23,624

The population of the Estates at the census of 1911 compares with that of the previous census as under:—

Year.	Males.	Females.	Persons.
1901	7,549	7,090	14,639
1911	12,170	11,454	23,624

Of the total population of 23,624 or 16 persons per square mile, 22,744 or 96 per cent. are Hindus and 880 or 4 per cent. are Musalmans.

Revenue.—The annual gross receipts amounting to Rs. 1,36,841 in these Estates are chiefly derived from Land, Forest, and Ábkári.

The receipts under these heads during 1911-12 were:—

Name of the Estate.	Land.	Forest.	Ábkári.	Total gross receipts.
1 Chikhali ...	18,004	403	12,333	30,740
2 Káthi ...	6,285	13,006	27,231	46,522
3 Raisingpur ...	3,535	3,891	4,364	11,790
4 Nal ...	1,290	200	12,823	14,313
5 Singpur ...	937	238	27,894	29,069
6 Nawalpur ...	289	1,565	2,553	4,407
Total ...	30,340	19,303	87,198	136,841

The area under cultivation in 1911 was about 65 square miles. All the estates are unsurveyed.

Famine.—The Estates suffered severely from famine in 1899-1900. The subsequent two years were seasons of scarcity owing to the scanty rainfall. Arrangements to distribute doles to the poor and to give gratuitous relief to the blind and infirm, etc., were made, and cheap grain shops were opened. The hill tribes were employed by the Chiefs on a few petty works, and were given dole at Government expense, the Chiefs contributing. There has been no further famine down to 1910-11.

Education.—In 1911 there were 4 schools with an attendance of 147 pupils.

Vaccination.—The number of children vaccinated rose from 179 in 1901-02 to 1023 in 1911-12.

Management.—The Estates of Raisingpur and Kathi came under the management of the Collector as Court of Wards from the 12th April 1908 and 15th March 1911, respectively, as the chieftain of the former estate is suffering from melancholia and that of the latter estate is a minor.
